The Road

We're made of dreams
Or so it seems
We long to fly
We've earned our wings
The world's a challenge
The road is tough
We won't turn back
When it gets rough
We'll miss the good times
These days, you know
But we'll take them with us
Where ever we go
And when we're sad
and down and blue
It's the looking back
That will get us through
So if we fall
Along the way
We'll stand back up
To a brand new day
Life's such a challenge
And ours has just begun
So look out world
Cause here we come!!!

As I look back at my years at Bishop Kearney, I am amazed at how quickly four years have passed. We have now reached the climax of our high school careers and although we are comforted by good memories I know that graduation will be one of the most difficult farewells we will have to make. There have been many friendships which have made the Kearney experience much more meaningful for all of us. That will always be something special. It will be hard to say goodbye to our friends, teachers, and school but we won't leave empty-handed. We will have our treasured memories, perhaps a tinge of sorrow, and great anticipation for what is yet to come!

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he notices two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Under a blood-red sky
A crowd has gathered in black and white,
Arms entwined, the chosen few,
Newspapers say, it's true it's true.
And we can break through, though torn in two, we can be one. U2
Love YOU-G.L.T.J.C.L.
PS. Prince Rules!
